I heard a good one the other day and to me the ending was hilarious, of course you will just have to consider that I am a simple person and simple things move me . . . Anyway here is the way the thing went:

A depositor in a Pasadena bank was credited with $5,800 extra, due to a bank error. He didn't bother to report it but just left the money in his checking account. Three months later, the bank discovered the error and deducted the amount from his balance. I asked him what his feelings were at the time they deducted the amount, and here is what he told me: "It's kinda like the story of the farmer who paid $15 for a pig, spent $8 for feed until it became a hog and then sold it for $23 . . . He didn't make any money on the deal but he had the company of the pig all summer . . . Now that is certainly a philosophical way to look at a scary situation.

In all the years, between the founding of our republic and the middle of World War II, federal government spending totaled about $300 billion. The budget for the next fiscal year proposed $368.8 billion for JUST THAT SINGLE YEAR. Does this make sense to you? If it doesn't, let your Senators and Congressman know you want spending brought under control, for just as sure as the sun comes up tomorrow, next year will, FOR A SINGLE YEAR reach $400 billion.

I wonder, and worry a great deal about the metric system . . . The "new math" introduced into the school system in the 1960's signalled the start of an alarming decline in standard mathematics achievements test throughout the country. Although it was supposed to improve students' arithmetic abilities it is being counted out in many parts of the country today. Half of our college freshmen are unable to handle fractions, and NYU mathematics professor Morris Kline warns that we're producing "a generation of mathematical illiterates," and if this is his conclusion about "modern math" wait, just wait until they give the metric system a try.

Can you imagine what the "old Grocer" will say when you waltz up to the counter and say "please give me 0.4536 kilogramme of sugar, and while you are at it and in the general area pick me up 453.6 grammes of butter . . . and ,oh yes, while you are at it just as well pick up 0.946 litres of milk . . . . Can you imagine what the girls will be saying to the boys when this system goes into effect . . . Give a guy several milimetres and he will surely take several kilometres . . . Oh boy, here we go toward mathematical illiterates. Just hope they know what they are giving and what they are taking.

In the trade it's called the "five o'clock surprise." Translated for the consumer, it means the mechanic told you in the morning that your car needed repairs that would cost $40 to $50. When you pick it up that afternoon you find the bill is actually two or three times the estimate. You need your car and you have no recourse; you've just received your five o'clock surprise. Maybe the charge i'ts bona fide and maybe it's not. How can you tell?

Californians have discovered a way to avoid this dilemma. Three years ago our state legislature established the nation's first Bureau of Automotive Repairs (B.A.R.). Created to monitor the auto-repair field, the B.A.R. requires that repair shops register with the bureau, give written estimates, and get owner auth-

Administration To Be Congratulated

Preliminary Budget Shows City Tax Rate Reduction

In my 35 years of experience, this is one of the first times in history that we have had the knowledge of a Preliminary Budget for any city or county to be presented to the Legislative Body with an actual Tax Rate Reduction, plus the fact that there has been very little increase in Assessed Valuations.

City Administrator David Lund has certainly been doing his home work; has received the message from the taxpayers, and has complied. He presented the preliminary budget to the City Council at its regular meeting of Tuesday, June 10. He has definitely maintained all levels of public services to which the citizens of Sierra Madre are accustomed, and gave the city a reduction in Tax Rate of 0.00812 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

In presentation of the preliminary budget, Administrator Lund stated: "The Consumer Price Index has increased approximately 12 per cent during the past year, while assessed property values are estimated to have increased by one one per cent. The City Council during this same period of time has endeavored to reduce operating expenditures without sacrificing levels of service. It is through the Council's leadership and cost control efforts that the proposed budget for 1975-76 will NOT impose an additional tax burden on the citizens of Sierra Madre.

The budget will now go to the Council who will meet with the various department administration staffs, where further cuts will be taken, and various additions given. A balanced budget is expected with a possibility of a lowering on the Final Budget from the Preliminary.

The overall budget reflects that during the 1975-76 period, the Administrator has estimated that it will take $107,554 more money to operate the city, his estimates being for the past year an expenditure of $1,719,320 to 1975-76 year of $1,826,874. He has estimated that there will be a decrease in General Unrestricted Revenues in the amount of $23,716, with restricted revenues increasing $187,972. In the area of expenditures he has estimated that personnel salaries will be decreased by $85,946, but maintenance and operations will show an increase of $99,420 and capital outlay will show an increase of $94,080. Taking all of this into consideration the City of Sierra Madre, for its first time in history, has reached the plateau of being a $2-million operation, as according to the preliminary budget, all revenues in all funds show an estimated expenditure for the year of $2,027,134.

In actually giving Sierra Madreans a preliminary reduction in the tax rate, the increase in assessed valuations are estimated to have increased only $375,430, from last year's actual of $28,254,570 to an estimate of $28,629,000. Congratulations go out to Administrator Lund as we look forward to the City Council's participation in presentation of the final budget.

Marcus III, who has been presenting Eagle Scout badges in the San Gabriel Valley Council for more than the past 23 years, indicated presenting one in your family is an entirely different situation and with different emotions.

COUNCIL COMPLETES AGENDA

The City Council meeting in regular session on Tuesday evening, June 10, gave notice of the resignation of Police Chief Thomas Kendra, and Mayor Joseph Delgatto, Sr. presented him with his service plaque, and accepted his resignation with regret, but wished him continued success in his new venture as Assistant Chief of Police of Culver City, where he takes up his active post on June 16.

Having given the audience their chances for participation, the Council then received the progress report for Sunnyside Lane, and ordered it filed for future references.

A report was given by City Administrator David Lund relative to the request of the C-V Disposal Company for a rate increase of 70 cents per month per collection. Lund noted that errors in the financial statement of C-V had been noted relative to costs of both the residential and commercial sections and a request had been made that they submit a corrected and revised Profit and Loss Statement covering the past 12 months. The report was ordered received and filed awaiting further correction

Upper Hastings Beautification Week June 16

The second annual Spring Beautification project sponsored by the Upper Hastings Ranch Association will begin on Monday, June 16, with a special trash pickup.

According to Sheryl Medina, who is spearheading the effort, special arangements have been made with the Public Works Department of the City of Pasadena for an unrestricted trash pickup throughout the Upper Hastings area on the June 16 date.

"Any extra trash put out by residents, including large tree clippings that are bundled, stored items from the garage (including old water heaters, broken toys, etc.) will be picked up by Pasadena's sanitation workers," said Mrs. Medina. "We are asking that all items to be picked up should be put at the curb in order to assist the City in making a speedy cleanup."

She added, "the only restriction is that the items not be larger than two men can lift."

Special judging of neighborhood blocks in the Upper Hastings area will be held on Saturday, June 21, and the Rainbow Awards for the 10 most beautiful blocks will be presented that afternoon.

"The Upper Hastings Ranch Board of Directors will drive through the neighborhood and judge each house and block and rate them according to a point system," said Mrs. Medina. "Each house and each block will be judged on the system of 100 points possible allocated as follows: 25 point possible: House appearance; 25 points: Lawns mowed and edged; 25 points: Parkways; 25 points: Hedges and ivy trimmed. After the individual judging of the homes, the total will be added to rate the whole block and the Rainbow Awards will be presented to the ten best-looking blocks.

The awards, a decorative sign paying tribute to the winners, after presentation, will be displayed in front of the block captain's homes or at the corner of the street until June 31.

Woman Seeks Marriage License To Wed Carpet

PASADENA — After having her rugs cleaned with the new SOIL-RELEASE system, where a water-base dry cleaning fluid is injected and removed until the carpets are clean and dry, a local housewife FELL IN LOVE with the way her rugs looked.

Her present husband has mixed feelings, as he is very pleased with the price she paid (about the same as "steam-cleaning") but he would rather have the drawbacks of regular carpet-cleaning instead of losing his wife to 65 yards of white wool carpet.

If you want to take a chance on having your wife fall in love with her rugs, call Larry Floyd at (213) 287-0831 as his company has a special this month on all the carpets in your house cleaned for only $15 per room. Call today or tomorrow for a free gift.

ARE YOU AWARE?

Have you ever traced your family tree and had the fun of sorting out the valiant noblemen from the horsethieves? It can get exciting. We find our roots. We even display our coat of arms, because it is our own particular heritage. And when there is the added excitement of the birth of a new baby in the family, oh, how proud we are to pass that hertiage, that legacy, down to the little one.

But there is more than physical heritage. There is more than physical birth. There is also spiritual birth. And finding ourselves a member of God's family. Sons and daughters of God.

When Jesus told the people He came to earth to set them free, they got defensive and insulted by the implication of His words. They told Him at once that they had a heritage. They were descendents of Abraham .They had never been and would never be in bondage to anyone. But Jesus was talking about ultimate freedom. He told them He knew their heritage. "But . . ." He said ". . . . except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God. Until a person is born again, he is blind. They didn't know they were blind, or they wouldn't admit it. There is tragedy in being spiritually blind. Unless we are born of the Spirit, we won't even see the kingdom of God.

Have you been born again? Have you been born of the Spirit? "Except a man is born again . . . ." born again — anew — "he cannot see the kingdom of God." It is not possible. No way. Being born again is being able to see. Being born again is experiencing new life. Being born again is loving Jesus because God is your Father. Being born again is seeing the kingdom of God because of your spiritual heritage.

New Housing Starts Show Slight Jump

New housing starts in California during April were up slightly from the previous month but well below the rate for April of 1974, Bank of America reported.

New housing starts in the state during April of this year were at a seasonally adjust annual rate of 98,000 units compared with 94,000 units during March and 149,000 units for April of last year.

However, bank economists noted that a continued increase in the number of building permits issued for single-family homes during April indicates further gains in housing starts in the months ahead. Almost 10,700 permits were issued for single-family dwellings during April — the highest total since July of 1974, the bank said.

Bank economists said housing starts are expected to reach a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 150,000 units by year's end, but total starts for 1975 are projected at 114,000 units — down slightly from 125,000 units in 1974.

Parenthood Meet On Mondays

Planned Parenthood adds a weekly Monday evening birth control at the Monrovia Health Center, 330 W. Maple Ave. The new session at 4 p.m. will handle the overflow from the regular Thursday morning (8:30 a.m.) clinics and will accommodate women who work or who have babysitting problems.

New patients are asked to call 798-0706 for appointments.

At the end of each clinic session pregnancy testing and counseling is scheduled. Registered nurses and skilled counselors work with the doctor at each clinic, explaining the advantages of family planning, the various methods of birth control and the value of breast examinations and Pap smaers for cancer detection.

Planned Parenthood has maintained these services in the San Gabriel Valley for more than 40 years for women who cannot afford private medical care. They advise patients who have infertility problems as well as those who want to know about sterilization (vasectomies and tubal ligations). Although advantages of family planning are stressed, Planned Parenthood workers lean over backwards to enable patients to choose their own alternatives in this very personal area.

Arcadia - Sierra Madre Newcomers Club Elects New Officers For 1975-76

Mrs. David Stevenson of Arcadia has been elected Arcadia - Sierra Madre Newcomer's Club president for 1975-76. Joining Mrs. Stevenson on the executive board will be: Mrs. Perry Cope, first vice president; Mrs. Roy Waggoner, second vice president; Mrs. Lee Walbert, recording secretary; Mrs. Gerald Carlson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Victor Mahler, treasurer and Mrs. David Malafronte, historian.

Mrs. Richard Dougherty, outging president, will be the installing officer for Mrs. Stevenson and her new board at a festive June luncheon at an inn in San Gabriel. Mrs. Donald Sensenbach, president of the club in 1973-74, will provide a musical interlude for the affair.

An Arcadia resident for a year and a half, "Dot" Stevenson is originally from Haverford, Pennsylvania, and lived in Cleveland, Ohio before her move to California. Husband David is the director of engineering of the Clayton Manufacturing Company, El Monte. Her 14 year old daughter Terri now attends Foothills Junior High School in Arcadia. Dot enjoys gourmet cooking and was the leader of the Newcomer's Gourmet group in 1974-75. She is also studying decorating and stained glass window making and finds time for tennis and gardening.

As president of the Newcomer's, a club sponsored by Welcome Wagon International, Mrs. Stevenson hopes to direct the club to a new level of community awareness in the coming year. The Newcomer's Club is open to all new Arcadia - Sierra Madre residents of less than two years and now includes over 200 members from the United States and abroad.

Bicyclists In Law Violation

Several million California bicyclists are operating illegally and probably don't even know it, the California Highway Patrol said this week.

Commissioner Glen Craig pointed out that ignorance of the law which changed reflector requirements has resulted in widespread violations. "Field office reports show that youngsters in particular don't know about the law."

Bikes ridden on public roadways must be equipped with CHP-approved reflectors: a white reflector on the front, a red reflector on the rear, a white or yellow relector on each side forward of center, and a white or red reflecetor on each side to the rear of center. CHP-approved reflectorized tires may be substituted for side reflectors. If the bicycle is ridden at night, it must also be equipped with a white light on the front.

The new reflector provisions were added to California law because of the increasing use of bicycles. Night visibility has been inadequate and addition of these reflectors "should help motorists see bikes after dark," Caig added.

Gasoline Use Up 8.4 Per Cent In California

Gasoline consumption in March increased 65 million gallons over March 1974, but is still below the March 1973 gallonage of 881.8 million gallons. Figures released by State Board of Equalization member George R. Reilly show that gasoline distribution in March 1975 was up 8.4 per cent over March 1974 while gasoline distribution in March 1974 was down 12.6 per cent from March 1973.

Revenue to the state from the 7-cents-a-gallon state tax on gasoline increased $4.6 million, up from $53.9 million, in March 1974 to $58.5 million in March 1975.

The gasoline distribution data are for taxable sales by distributors to retail outlets, brokers, and certain other distributors. Refiners, importers, and wholesale distributors of gasoline pay the 7-cent tax on their distributions to retailers. The Board of Equalization administers the state fuel tax program.

Vehicle Tax Sent To County, Cities

State Controller Kenneth Cory reported distribution of 21,724,578 to cities and counties as the May apportionment of state-collected "in-lieu" motor vehicle license fees.

Cory reported Los Angeles County received $3,644,654 and the City of Sierra Madre eecived $8,155.52.

The distribution represents the cities and counties shares of license fees and other revenue deposited in the Motor Vehicle License Fee Account during April.

Half of the distribution wen to the cities and half to counties in the proportion that the population of each city or county bears to the population of all the cities or counties in the state. Distribution is based on the 1970 Federal Census as arjusted to reflect new incorporations, annexations, special censuses and State Department of Finance estimates.

Rho Chapter - Beta Sigma Phi Has Changed Officers At May 22 Meeting

In a traditional candle-candlelight ceremony on May 22, Mrs. Wayne Brubaker of Pasadena accepted the gavel as a symbol of her office from the outgoing president of Rho Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Mrs. Richards Thomas of Sierra Madre.

The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. William Stewart of San Gabriel with Mrs. Reavis Franklin of this community as hostess. Serving with Mrs. Brubaker for the 1975-76 year will be: Mrs. William Stewart, vice president; Mrs. Robert Cole, recording secretary; Miss Teresa Rosewall, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jeffrey Hale, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Kelly, council representative.

Appointed chairmen are: Mrs. Jeffrey Hale, achievement; Mrs. William Stewart, membership and civic awareness; Rick Bell, ways and means and historian; Mrs. Gerald Popperwell, nuisance and nonsense; Mrs. Richards Thomas, parliamentarian and publicity; Mrs. Reavis Franklin, service; Mrs. Robert Cole, program and yearbook; Mrs. William Roberts, social. Upon congratulating elected officers and thanking members for accepting positions, Mrs. Brubaker expressed her views and hopes for the coming year.

Mrs. Brubaker has chosen as the theme for her term "Awareness of Blessings," her flower is the yellow rose and her colors are gold, orange, green, yellow and brown.

On June 5, Rho Chapter will have their secret sister revelation party at the home of Mrs. Wayne Brubaker of Pasadena. The social committee with Mrs. William Roberts as chairman will be hostesses. After the secret sisters have been revealed, new secret sisters will be chosen for the coming year.

Supervisor Pete Schabarum Urges Closing Loopholes

Supervisor Pete Schabarum called for the support of the Board of Supervisors last week in legislative efforts to block loopholes in state welfare regulations which allow illegal aliens to receive welfare under the Aid for Families with Dependent Children program.

A recent Sacramento Court decision has seriously affected the county's ability to detect and control the receipt of welfare payments by illegal alien families, Schabarum said.

The court ruled that an alien applicant now needs only to state that he is not under order for deportation in order to receive welfare, pending verification of his statement by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS).

"Prior to this decision," said Schabarum, "the applicant had to also declare that he was lawfully admitted for permanent residence before receiving assistance.

"Since the Federal regulations are specific in prohibiting aid to persons not so admitted, there is a conformity problem between California's current law and Federal law," said Schabarum.

The conformity issue is now being studied by the U.S. Commissioner of Public Welfare and could result in initial claim cuts of more than $1,800,000 per year for cases carried in Los Angeles County.

In order to close the loophole and avoid claim cuts, corrective legislation is needed at the state level.

Schabarum will urge support of two bills currently nnder consideration in Sacramento which would result in an adequate state law. The bills are SB 403 (Russell) and AB 1116 (Antonovich).

At the same time, Schabarum has written to Caspar Weinberger, Health, Education and Welfare secretary, the INS and the White House Domestic Council on Illegal Aliens to urge computerization of INS files so that illegal aliens can be instantaneously identified.

Declaring that the present manual system of clearance is antiquated and takes several months, Schabarum said this allows illegal aliens to remain on welfare rolls during the lengthy clearance process before their illegal status becomes known to the county.

Schabarum said the county fully support verification of alien status through INS, but that more modern methods are needed to conserve public funds.

Cazadero Highway

Dusky stands of redwoods and a leisurely winding creek provide an afternoon of peaceful sights, sounds, and scents for the motorist who follows the Cazadero Highway.

This short country road connects State Highway 116 with Cazadero, a small town near Guerneville in northern California. The road follows Austin Creek and the roadbed of the old North Pacific Railroad, which opened this area to lumbermen almost 100 years ago.

Motorists call this one of the most beautiful areas of all the Russian River country.

Nobody's Perfect

If you've wondered why a brand-new car almost always still has a number of "bugs" to be worked out, put it down to the fact that nobody's perfect. When 100 out of 1,000 of a certain part are defective, manufacturers estimate that the inspector in charge of catching all those defects is likely to miss 15.

INVESTMENTS IN GROWTH STOCKS

by Thomas O'Hara

Q. — Congress has removed the depletion allowance that oil companies received. Do you thnk this will lower gasoline prices and the earnings of the oil companies?

A. — In the near term, I believe the effect on the oil companies will be to crimp earnings. As far as prices are concerned, there are so many other forces involved that it's hard to guess what the short-term effect will be. In the long run, I'm sure the oil companies will adjust their prices to the higher costs they will now have and come up with the same profit margin they had in the past. Long-term, the effect of removing the depletion allowance will be to boost the price of gasoline and the price of all petroleum products.

The depletion allowance was a means of reducing the oil companies' cost of finding new oil supplies. Removing it means they now have to recover those costs from higher prices rather than through lower taxes. The oil companies' only source of income is what they get for selling their products, and, since they have no other magical way of acquiring dollars, they have to set those prices high enough to cover their costs. Higher prices will cut sales volume at least for a while, but longer term I would expect the oil companies to experience good earnings, unless our politicians develop some additional ways of disrupting their business.

Q. — I have stock in a company which also has convertible shares outstanding. A friend of mine tells me I would be a lot better off if I owned the convertible preferred stock instead of the common. Would you tell me if you think he is right?

A. — Let's look at the features of the stock you own. Currently the common stock you own is selling at about $14 a share and is paying a dividend of $1. That gives you a yield of 7.1 per cent on your money. The convertible preferred is selling for $48 and pays $4 a year, or 8.3 per cent. The convertible can be changed into three shares of common. However, if you sold your common and bought the preferred, excluding commissions, you would only be able to buy 29 shares of the preferred. In place of the $100 in dividends you now get each year, you would get $116. That is a 16 per cent increase.

How well you will fare from this point depends on what happens to the company in the future. If you have owned this stock over the past three years, you actually have received only 25 cents a share, or a total of $25 in dividends because the common did not pay any dividend for most of that time. If you had owned the 29 shares of preferred, you would have received $4 a share per year or $348 in dividends in the three-year period.

Now what could happen in the future? Right now the company is dong very well. It might even raise its dividend in which case you would receive about as much income as you'd get from the convertible.

If the company should have bad times again, then you'd probably get more income from the preferred.

There is another point to consider. In the bad times just passed for your company, the selling price of the common went down a lot more than did the preferred. The reason was the preferred dividend is more likely to be paid than is that on the common, and the size of that dividend also tends to keep the price of the stock up.

Another point to consider is the convertible feature. If the common stock appreciates, the holder of the convertible an convert to common and sell it if it goes higher in value than the equivalent value of the common.

Altogether, the convertible at the moment gives you more income, more protection on the downside both for price and income, and the opportunity to benefit from the upside movement of the common.

The May issue of oer magazine, "Better Investing," has a feature story on convertibles, and we'd be pleased to send any reader a copy who writes and requests it.

from the disposal company before determination.

Attached to the report was an analysis of other cities showing that the rate for Sierra Madre at the present time was $2.25 per month compared with Monrovia at $2.10; San Gabriel $2.05; Arcadia $2.50; Azusa, $2.50, Duarte $3.07 and Rosemead $3.29, all comparative to the Sierra Madre service.

A report by the Administrator on the requested increase for Teleprompter TV was presented to the City Council, wherein the Administrator, in complying with the City council instructions, asked for ten items of clarification before the Council could give consideration, most of them asking for definite figures on the Sierra Madre Division of the company, rather than the company as a whole. The complete request will be published in next weeks issue of the News.

The new San Gabriel Transit Plan was presented to the City Council for their review, after which Council adopted Resolution No. 75-28. A complete presentation was made by Mrs. Mary Lou Echternacht, community relations officer for Rapid Transit who was assisted by Bill Shepherd of Wilbur Smith and Associates.

City Administrator Lund presented the Council with purchase orders No. 4330 in the amount of $542 to the View for the printing of the city's Community Newsletter and Summer Recreational Program, and purchase order No. 4331 for $700 for repairs of the city's boom truck. There being no business before the CRA there was no meeting called.

Having given the audience further participation, the City Administrator, Deputy City Attorney, the Council then presented their views and adjourned until their next regular meeting of June 23.

Editorially Speaking

The People Must Know

By Howard Jarvis
Chairman, United Organizations of Taxpayers

The United Organization of Taxpayers, Inc., achieved on of its biggest victories in the recent Los Angeles election. All but one of the tax raising measures the UO opposed were defeated. Propositions A, B, C and F, the major tax raising measures were defeated by large margins.

The UO wrote the opposition arguments on six ballot measures, five of which were defeated. President Edward J. Boyd secured good coverage in the Los Angeles Times, while vice president James Christo and State Chairman Howard Jarvis made over 40 television and radio appearances against the defeated propositions.

The UO opposed the tax raising measures on the ground that these propositions would have cost property taxpayres over 3000 million dollars. The UO opposed and defeated the Rapid Transit proposition last election because it would have cost the taxpayers 10,000 million dollars.

It is interesting to note that the really big tax raise measures were strongly supported by the Los Angeles Times, and rarely, if ever, does the Times oppose any tax raising measures.

Radio station KABC performed an outstanding public service by running a poll to see how many voters understood the propositions on the ballot. A large majority of those polled stated they did not. KABC also recommended that no one should vote for any proposition they did not understand. This is a very good policy for voters to follow. It would be good if the rest of the media would follow radio KABC's lead.

It was unfortunate for taxpayers that Dolly Swift, running for the Los Angeles School Board and Marian La Follette, running for Community College Trustee were defeated as both of these women were well qualified and could have helped education as well as the taxpayers.

Mayor Tom Bradley's political star which some thought would orbit him into national political office has lost a lot of its glitter. Mayor Tom has been handed five major political defeats in a row. (1) He lost his Rapid Transit fight, (2) his candidate Washington for the State Senate lost to Senator Blil Green, (3) his candidate Fran Savitch lost the City Council seat to Zev Yaroslovsky, (4) he lost his battle to flouridate city water, and (5) he lost his fight to pass school propositions A, B and C.

The mayor is now out in front advocating gun control to deny American citizens a basic constitutional right to bear arms. He will lose this one as well.

Mayor Bradley, in his long black Cadillac had better look in his rear view mirror because Governor Jerry Brown is coming fast in his little blue Plymouth.

A Bad Bill

Assemblyman John L. E. "Bud" Collier (R-San Gabriel Valley) expressed disappointment at the passage of AB 822, a bill designed to institute a system of postcard voter registration.

"California has had a long history of clean poiltics. The current registration system was designed to discourage multiple registrations and vote fraud. This bill, presented under the disguise of political reform, could make way for a modern form of boss politics. California doesn't need this sort of thing," Collier stated.

The assemblyman also questioned the tactics being used to advance the bill.

"This should be an appropriation bill requiring a two-thirds vote, but the Democrats who are pushing this bill knew they couldn't get that many votes," Collier explained, "so they removed the appropriation, thereby reducing the vote requirement to a simple majority, and slipped the funding into the budget bill."

"This is a bad piece of legislation. It is very expensive, and it could ruin the integrity of the California ploitical system," Collier concluded.

Grassroots Opinion

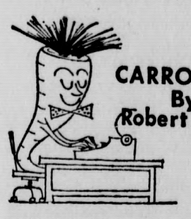

Huntington, Ind., Herald-Press: "When the Federal Government does things, it uses such a heavy hand that one sometimes wonders whether the Constitution is still in a viable state. Remember that part about state's rights? They dwindle farther and farther into the past. What brings such somber thoughts to mind is the . . . passage by the U.S. Senate of a bill calling for a 55 mile-an-hour speed limit across the nation in order to conserve gasoline supplies. In itself, the bill is admirable . . . . the bill not only makes sense in that it would conserve gasoline, but it will probably conserve human life, too. The bad feature about the bill, exposing the heavy hand of the Federal Bureaucrats, is the tag line on the bill. The Senate warns that states not implementing the speed limit would face loss of federal highway funds. No effort to gain support through reason and logic! No recommendations from Federal Big Brother! Just thé harsh warning that the State will obey or lose their road funds. The irony of the order is that those funds are not the Federal Govrnment's to begin with. That money was accumulated from the pennies you and I paid out in taxes . . . the Federal Bureaucrats won't give us our own money back. That is no way to develop confidence in government. An urgent appeal for cooperation from state governments would be more in line."

Marion, Wisc., Advertiser: "As far as the elderly — we can't see any reason for them to cut back on fuel oil for their homes. They don't go boating or snowmobiling, use chain saws or snowblowers, tractors or motorcycles, and don't usually drive a car . . . so as far as we are concerned — keep warm next winter!"

Yuba City, Calif., Independent-Herald: "Hardly any private citizens in Communist China today can afford, or are allowed, automobiles. So, many persons have bicycles. According to a new book, 'China Journal,' published by Rand McNally, there are 1.7 million bicycles registered in Peking alone."

Osage City, Kans., Journal-Free Press: "Ever wonder how the income tax got started? The 16th amendment to th U.S. Constitution, legalizing federal income taxes, was adopted in 1913. It began as an amendment to a bill in Congress lowering the tariff on imports. The idea was that the small deficit from reduced tariff receipts could be taken care of by a tiny tax on prosperous incomes. On incomes from $4,000 to $20,000, the bite was one per cent. On $100,000, it was four per cent; on $500,000 six per cent. Few made more than $4,000. Few people opposed the idea of the tax. It didn't seem important at the time. There must be a lesson there."

orization for repairs that exceed the original estimate. The shop's records must be open to inspection by the bureau, and violation of any of these requirements could lead to criminal charges or revocation of registration.

The B.A.R. now receives calls at the rate of 78,000 o year. Complaints are handled by consumer representatives who, although they have no legal power to force settlement, help negotiate disputes between the consumer and the repair shop. The customer is not always right of course, and an adjustment that is satisfactory to both parties may take several days of negotiation. In the absence of agreement, the customer is entitled to file a suit in small-claims court.

Most repair shops are honest, and outright fraud is not prevalent. So far, the B.A.R. has used its powers to revoke or suspend registration or file criminal charges fewer than 100 times. At same time, California motorists, who spend $2.5 billion a year on auto repair, are protected against gyps, and the $3-million annual budget of the B.A.R. is financed largely by the registration fees of the auto-repair shops themselves.

Local merchants just barely got their income tax paid, and their personal property tax taken care of when the mail delivered the "Unsecure Tax" bill. That's the one for your equipment, such as counters, shelving, machinery, desks, typewriters, billing machines and so forth. It would seem to me that they could at least wait 30 days before hitting you with that one, after all this one is not delinquent until August 31, but there was something new in this tax bill, the tax rate has now reached $15.42½ per $100 assessed valuation . . . Remember back in 1965 when I told you that the next year the rate would reach $10.00 . . . With that same wisdom that I had in those days I will not tell you that the tax rate for the years 1977-78 will have reached the point of $20.00 per $100 assessed valuation . . . Remember I told you so, and to help it all out, the county is looking at an incease of 40 cents right this moment.

— CT —

Here's something that happened in Sierra Madre the other day as one of the local ministers was making a call on a church member one afternoon.

— CT —

Young son came rushing into the house holding a rat by the tail. "He'd dead," he assured his mother. "We whacked him and clammed him and busted him until—" at this point he noticed the minister. ". . . Until God called him home." . . . And right here is where I feel that some of our tax rates should be "called home."

— CT —

Speaking of young sons and the youngsters, here is a conversation overheard at Sierra Mesa School . . . Two first graders were standing outside school one morning . . . "Do you think," asked one "that thermonuclear projectiles will pierce the heat barrier?"

— CT —

"No," said the second. "Only a force enters the substratosphere" . . . "Then the bell rang. Said the first: "There goes the bell. Darn it, now we gotta go in and string beads." . . . Of course, this is a relaxing sport, I'm sure.

— CT —

In closing the column for this week. We do not have to remind you that "The government has a habit of taking away with one hand what it gives with the other." Most of us have found that the reduction in income tax given to us last fall has now been retrieved by the government, and a few extra dollars with it. Now to lighten the load, they have made it possible for you to pay it in payments at six per cent interest, which they claim is cheaper than borrow it . . . . I hope, I hope, I hope.

Life Cycle Club Meets Thursdays

The Life Cycle Club continues to pedal on, adding to last month's milage total of 190 miles.

Every Thursday evening they leave 567 South Lake Ave., Pasadena at 7 p.m. to ride 10 miles throughout areas of Pasadena. These rides are relaxing and take place on scenic routes.

Saturday mornings they start riding at 8 a.m. Rides depart from either Pasadena or Arcadia depending on the area they are planning to cover. These rides offer challenges in distance or climbing, as well as being a time to share with fellow cyclists. Rides are open to all interested.

As well as Thursday and Saturday rides, they have two Sunday rides a month. These rides start at 5 p.m. and leave from different areas in Arcadia or Pasadena. These rides vary in distance between ten to twenty miles and are not quite as challenging as Saturday rides.

Another facet of the Life Cycle Club is the monthly club meeting. An invitation is extended to join them for their first annual potluck dinner. Anyone interested in the club is welcome to join them. If you plan to do so, they ask they you take the following if your last name ends in: A-J main dish, K-P salad and P-Z desserts. The dinner will take place at All Saints Church, 132 N. Euclid, Pasadena, in the dining room at 7 p.m., on June 10. This will be a great time to meet club members and find out about the Life Cycle Club activities.

For further information about the club or ride schedules, call Terre Watson at 445-7610.

TAKE YOUR PROBLEMS TO CHURCH THIS WEEK—millions leave them there!

As a boy it was so easy to justify a fight. Publicly you gloated over your opponent's bloody nose (and privately you wished that his had been the black eye with its more-lasting embarrassment). But, somehow, the victory alone excused the battle.

As an adult how do you view the matter? Would the possibility of bloody victory be sufficient justification for attempting to beat the tar out of some irritating neighbor? You might be arrested for disturbing the peace . . . assault and battery!

But that is not the real reason we control brutal impulses. The real reason lies deep in our Christian heritage:
—a sense of human dignity . . .
—respect for fairness and justice regardless of might . . .
—the belief that peace can be a blessing for weak and strong alike . . .
—that patient understanding can enrich life.

Rooted in the same Christian faith are other great principles of life which challenge men's hearts and minds. We seek to understand and apply them as we worship God in our churches. They are essential in a world still threatened with a return to the black eye and bloody nose . . . or something worse.

A Woman Ought To Know . .

Send questions to: Anita Miller, chairperson, California Commission on the Status of Women, 926 J Street, Suite 1014, Sacramento, CA 95814.

Dear Anita,

Since the Equal Pay Act, women's pay seems to be getting better all the time. Don't they earn almost as much as men do now?

L. D., Fairfield

Dear L. D.,

Unfortunately, the answer to your question is no! In fact, the gap between what men and women earn is actually growing wider, not narrower.

Nationally, on the average, a woman worker earns 58 cents for every dollar earned by a male worker. This is a decrease from the national average of a few years ago of 64 cents for every dollar.

In California, the figures are even more discouraging. Women earn only 49 cents for every dollar earnd by a male worker.

These figures reflect not only the abuse of the principle of equal pay for equal work. They also represent a concentration of women in low-paying jobs. But even within the same occupation, women earn less than men.

Obviously, the Equal Pay Act is not being adhered to or enforced.

Next week: What are your rights under the Equal Pay Act?

Q: What are my rights under the Equal Pay Act?

A: The Federal Equal Pay Act was enacted in 1963 as an amendment to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). It prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in the payment of wages for substantially equal work.

Jobs that require equal skills and responsibility and that are performed in the same company under similar working conditions are covered under the Equal Pay Act. Its provisions apply to all wages and earnings as well as company benefits like insurance, retirement, and vacations.

The protection offered by the Equal Pay Act extends to most employee classifications including executive, administrative, and professional levels in addition to nonsupervisory and hourly wage earners. However, a few employees of small retail stores and service establishments are still unprotected.

The U.S. Department of Labor reports that it is illegal for an employer to lower someone's wage rate in order to equalize rates between sexes. The law, however, does not prohibit wage differentials on a justifiable seniority system or a system which pays for the quantity of work produced.

If you have a complaint based on the Equal Pay Act, contact the Wage and Hour Division of the U.S. Department of Labor which has offices in the major cities of California. Or, you may contact the Commission for the office location nearest you.

Cactus Show Set For Sun., July 6

The widely held belief that cactus grows only in desert regions is a fallacy, according to nurserymen who will participate in the International Flower and Garden Exposition which continues daily as Rossmoor Leisure World, Laguna Hills. There is no admission charge.

Cactus is found in every state except Hawaii and Alaska, say the experts. It grows on mountaintops and in jungles and, in fact, jungle-bred cactus will die if exposed to the desert sun.

A preview of a new collection of villas in the New Model/Design Center will be held during the flower and garden show which continues through Sunday, July 6. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily, and 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Sundays.

Rossmoor Leisure World may be reached via the El Toro Road exit on the San Diego Freeway.

Jamming a car's wheels against the curb as you pull into a parking space causes extra wear of the tires and can even throw your wheels out of alignment.

Schedule for the Fourth of July has already been set up. The festivities begin at 1 p.m. with the parade, and its many entries, mostly children. At 2:30, the Little League game will be played and at 4:30 many other games will invite the participation of all present. At 6 there will be a speaker, immediately following will be a band concert and community sing.

I would like to know who might have a pheasant for a pet in the Villa area. We are used to the quail strutting across the patio, as if they owned all they surveyed, but the other morning at breakfast, we were treated to the sight of a rather large and colorful pheasant staking out his or her claim on the south forty.

A short time ago, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States announced a new program, to which it is giving an all-out effort. It's called Total Community Development and is designed to stimulate businessmen to assume the leadrship in developing their hometown or city.

Saturday, June 12, marked the date of a birthday party for Stephen and Kevin Sweeney at the home of their grandparents. Thirty-five friends of the Sweeneys were present to enjoy swimming, tennis, games, and the finale of the evening being entertainment by Mr. Clown of Los Angeles. The evening was topped off with a barbeque supper, and the traditional opening of presents and cake eating.

This June issue of Sierra Madre News seems to focus on the theme of "June Bride," and many merchants have made outstanding contributions to those marking June as their wedding date.

A dangerous fire started Tuesday at the Sierra Madre Machine Co. when some of the magnesium they had been working with had accidentally settled in the electrical box and exploded. Fortunately the fire was out quickly and no injuries were received.

Sixty Years Ago: June 18, 1915

Among those that bought new cars this week included H. J. Simank, Dr. R. H. Mackerras, Henry Schaser, E. L. Yerxa, Jack Richey and A. E. Griggs. Seems that no notice is given to new cars these days as compared to a few years ago.

Sierra Madreans were well represented in the 1915 Pasadena High Graduation with Anna Kehlet, Katherine Schwartz, Helen Dudley, Elizabeth Ferris, Isabelle Craig, Mattie Seeley, Mamie Weisher, Billie Schwartz, Webster Vannier, Robert Clark, Roe McKinley, James Sparks and George Starr representing our city.

City Marshal Udell asked the citizens of Sierra Madre not to shoot dogs to dispose of them, but suggests that they call him as he has devised a large box where he can put the dog in the box and put them to sleep without pain. It is by asphyxiation, as recommended by the human societies of the larger cities.

A. E. Griggs was elected to the Board of Trustees due to the resignation of Trustee J. M. Beard. F. D. R. Moote was elected mayor at the meeeting and at the same time the board was faced with a new resignation, that of Trustee Steinberger.

Six rules were published relative to prevention of disastrous fires in the mountains. The rules are the same as we use today.

Norris Cash Grocery was advertising Leg O' Lamb at 15 cents a pound and three salt mackeral for 25 cents. Sadler and Co. was advertising Hose for 10 cents and Curtain Scrim for 15 cents a yard.

Ordinance No. 201 was passed by the City Trustees banning horse coralls, livery stables and such from the residential district of the city. The Ordinance specified horse, mule, jack, jennie or burro, and placed a fine of $100 for violation.

Sierra Madre Hardware was advertising Hammocks for the summer months at a gigantic special of $1.60. They warned that they had only 100, so it was first come, fisst served.

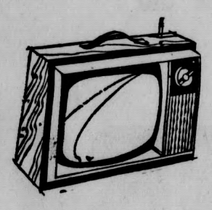

Herman R. Hertel ran a large advertisement for sale of women's corsets, new and up-to-date models. Full stock on hand some with front lace others with back lace, and can you imagine, they guaranteed them to be dust-proof. Special for $1. Accessories ? ? ? extra.
